things to see and do

Sochi

Park Inn by Radisson* Sochi City Centre is located in the centre of Sochi next to the railway station. The railway station building was added to the number of monuments of federal significance in 1975.

The area is active throughout the year, but particularly during the summer with tourists visiting the numerous restaurants, cafes, bars, nightclubs, markets and tourist outlets.

Black Sea shoreline, the promenade and the Sochi Sea Port is in 1.1km southwest of the Hotel. Apart of being the access point for cruise liners, the area is in the close vicinity of the Hotel and includes 150-200 berths for yachting marina, a pedestrian walkway along the waterfront with cafes and bars, retail and entertainment outlets.

Sochi is a unique place in the Russian Federation with a sub-tropical climate and is the foremost resort in the vast country attracting domestic holidaymakers from all corners of the country.

The Caucasus Mountains are in 48 km to the east, while Skiing resorts Rosa Khutor and Krasnaya Polyana are in 68 km to the east, Olympic Park is in 39 km to the south-east. Both areas are easily accessible by light railway from the Hotel.
